

Impressions of a Trip along the Way of St. James

The Way of St. James ending in Santiago de Compostela has recently become very popular. One can even say that it is ‘fashionable’. Nevertheless, each pilgrim makes his individual way with his/her own joy, sufferings and privations.

Annemarie Koelliker and her husband Roberto Saibene have taken their own way as an inspiration, as a call to ‘self meditation’ but also as ‘outward observation’. They undertook the French sector from Geneva by bicycle, the Spanish part one year later on foot.

The many experiences, occurrences and sights on the Way of St. James have been summarised in an impressive multivision show. It gives an impression about what such a trip can initiate and influence in us human beings.

Data of the show:

- Multivision Show in two parts
- 700 photos taken with Nikon camera and lenses
- Projection with HD Beamer
- Duration: 75 minutes
